

INTERNSHIP PROGRAM

The Democratic National Committee Internship Program provides a unique opportunity for hardworking, passionate young leaders to gain hands-on experience in Democratic politics, strengthen their understanding of the political process and prepare for future political opportunities. In addition to typical intern duties, interns will have the chance to volunteer in community outreach projects and grassroots organizing, assist at DNC functions, take tours across the Washington, D.C. area, and attend weekly meetings hosted by DNC staff. Each department offers a unique learning experience, ultimately contributing to the success of Democrats throughout the nation.

INTERNSHIP EVENTS

Professional Development: Resume Building Workshop

Meetings: DNC Staff, Leadership

Campaigns: Canvassing, Phonebanking

Tours: US Capitol, Library of Congress

DNC Lunch & Learn: Interns have the opportunity to hear from Senior Staff and their department's role at the DNC
